Individual Notes:

Willamina Orange overall is confident and self assured, he just needs a little time to adjust. He is curious and investigative with new sights and sounds, including those that would be considered startling. He has mid level energy. After the initial adjustment, he shows no stress in new situations, around new people, or in circumstances that would typically be considered stressful. He is curious and investigative with new sights and sounds, including those that would be considered startling. He is happy, bubbly, and social. He is personable, affectionate, playful, and curious. He has good memory, focus and problem-solving abilities above average for his age and stage of development. He is motivated for interaction, food, and toys at fairly equal and balanced levels. He is comfortable, tolerant, and gentle with handling and restraint. He is socially appropriate in his interactions with his littermates, other dogs, cats, and people. He is rarely vocal and rarely uses his mouth to initiate or engage in play, but when he does, he has excellent bite inhibition. He has no red flags in his personality and shows no possessiveness. These puppies are very well balanced and should do well in most any home. Orange has potential for therapy work.
