Individual Notes:

Gertrude pink is confident and self-assured, although she needs a little time to adjust into a new situation. She shows some stress in new situations, but none around new people or in circumstances that would typically be considered stressful. She reacts appropriately to new sites and sounds. She is curious and investigate. This includes sites and sounds that would typically be considered startling. She has a good memory, focus, and problem-solving abilities average for her age and stage of development. She also has good motivations for interaction food and toys at fairly equal and balanced levels. She is socially appropriate in her interactions with litter mates, cats, other dogs, and with people. She is rarely vocal and rarely uses her mouth to initiate play or interaction. When she does she has excellent bite inhibition. The litter overall have no red flags and show no possessiveness. They are all comfortable and tolerant of handling and restraint. These puppies are very consistent with very few differences between them. Differences are only noted when comparing them side-by-side. Pink is confident and self-assured from the start. She has service potential. These puppies have mid to moderate energy. They are all confident, self-assured, and content to explore and play on their own. They are playful, curious, social, and happy. They are bubbly, engaging, and eager. They should adapt well to most any home.
