Individual Notes:

Holland green is confident and self-assured. He shows no stress in new situations, around new people, or in circumstances that would typically be considered stressful. He reacts appropriately to new sights and sounds. He is curious and investigative. He has good motivations at fairly equal and balanced levels for interaction, food, and toys. He also has a good memory focus and problem-solving abilities average for his age and stage of development. He is socially appropriate in his interactions with one another, cats, and other dogs. He is also socially appropriate in his interactions with people. He does vocalize in his effort to get and keep attention but it is easily managed and or redirected. He rarely uses his mouth and has excellent bite inhibition. When he does he is content to explore and play on his own. The litter has mid to moderate energy. They are all confident, self-assured, playful, happy, and content to explore and play on their own. They are well balanced. They are personable, happy, social, and engaging. They are curious and inquisitive. These puppies are well balanced and should adapt well into most any home.
