Individual Notes:

Viola Orange Dot is confident and self-assured. He shows no stress in new situations, around new people, or in circumstances that would typically be considered stressful. This puppy is curious and investigative of new sights and sounds, including those that should be considered startling. He has good memory focus and problem-solving abilities average for his age and stage of development. He also has good motivations for interaction, food, and toys at fairly equal and balanced levels. Orange Dot is socially appropriate in his interactions with littermates, with cats, and with other dogs. He is also socially appropriate in his interactions with people. He does use his mouth to initiate or engage in play, but has a very good bite inhibition. This puppy is rarely vocal, and has mid-level energy.

Overall, the Viola litter has no red flags and shows no possessiveness. They are all comfortable and tolerant of handling and restraint. They tend to be quite gentle with handling and interaction, which is good given their potential large size. These puppies are very consistent with very few differences between them. Differences between these puppies will become more noticeable as learning experiences within their new environment begin. These puppies are all very personable and engaging. They are social and happy. This litter is content to explore and play on their own and very self-sufficient. They are very well balanced and will adapt well to most any home and environment.

Health notes:

Orange Dot has no health notes.

blue stripe and green stripe are the most engaging of the group but still are very balanced and not needy and can be self-sufficient
