Individual Notes:

Abby Red is confident and self-assured. She shows no stress in new situations, around new people, or in circumstances that are typically considered stressful. She reacts appropriately to new sights and sounds. She is curious and investigative. This puppy has very good motivations for food and toys. She is also has good motivation for interaction. Red has good memory, focus, and problem-solving abilities average for her age and stage of development. She is socially appropriate in her interactions with litter mates, with cats, and with other dogs. She is also socially appropriate in her interactions with people. She has mid-level energy.

Overall. The Abby litter has no red flags, and shows no possessiveness. They are all comfortable and tolerant of handling and restraint. They are rarely vocal, they use their mouth somewhat to initiate or engage in play, but have excellent bite inhibition. These puppies are very consistent with very few differences between them. They are personable and engaging, but still content to explore and play on their own. They are confident, social, happy, and curious. They are eager to please, and gentle with handling. These puppies are very well balanced and should adapt well into most any home.
