Individual Notes:

The Alba litter is confident and self-assured, although a couple of puppies needed a little time to adjust into a new situation. These puppies show little to no stress in new situations around new people are in circumstances that are typically considered stressful. They are curious and investigative of new sites and sounds, including those that are typically considered startling. These puppies have a good memory, focus, and problem-solving abilities average for their age and stage of development. Their focus to people is above average. They are very motivated for interaction and they have good motivations for food and toys. These puppies are socially appropriate in their interactions with one another with cats, and with other dogs they are also socially appropriate in their interactions with people, although a few of them can be a little pushy in their effort to get or keep your attention, these puppies have no red flags and show no possessiveness.

Blue Dot is comfortable and tolerant of handling and restraint. He is rarely vocal, and he rarely uses his mouth to initiate or engage in play. The Alba puppies are fairly consistent with very few differences between them. They all have Mid to Moderate energy and they are all very personable and engaging. Any puppy in this litter has potential for therapy work. They are all social, happy, bubbly, and engaging. They are personable and affectionate, they are also gentle and well-balanced. They should adopt well into most any home, orange, and pink will do best in homes that will be interactive with them.
