Individual Notes:

The Reba litter overall is confident and self-assured. They show little to no stress in new situations, around new people, or in circumstances that are typically considered stressful. Orange is curious and investigative with new sites and sounds, including those that should be considered startling. He has good memory, focus, and problem-solving abilities average for their age and stage of development. Orange also has good motivations for interaction, food, and toys at fairly equal and balance levels. He is socially appropriate in her interactions with her littermates, cats, and with other dogs. Orange is socially appropriate in her interactions with people, he has no red flags, and show no possessiveness. Orange is comfortable and tolerant of handling and restraint and he rarely uses her mouth to initiate or engage in play, when he does he has excellent bite inhibition. Orange is rarely vocal. They Reba puppies overall are very consistent with very few differences between them. Individual tendencies will become more pronounced as these puppies have different learning and social experiences as they grow. All of the Reba puppies have mid to moderate energy. They are personable, affectionate, eager, and happy. They are gentle with handling and interaction. They are playful, curious, social and well-balanced, and they should adopt well into most any home.
