Individual Notes:

Annie Oakley green dot is confident and self-assured. He shows no stress in new situations, around new people, or in circumstances that are considered stressful. He is curious and investigative with new sites and sounds, including those that should be considered startling. He has a good memory, focus, and problem-solving abilities average to their age and stage of development. He also has very good motivations for interaction and food. He has good interest in toys. He is socially appropriate in his interactions with litter mates, cats, and with other dogs. Although, his play style is a bit rough and tumble, he is socially appropriate in his interactions with people. He does use his mouth to initiate and engage in play but has excellent bite inhibition. He is rarely vocal. The litter overall have no red flags and show no possessiveness. They are all comfortable and tolerant of handling and restraint. They all have mid to moderate energy. They are playful, curious, social and eager. They are content to explore and play on their own, while still being interactive and engaging. They are personable and affectionate. Green Dot would prefer to be with people than being alone. He has potential for therapy work. The rest of the litter are well balanced and should do well in most any home. Green Dot will do best in a home that is going to be interactive with him.
