Individual Notes:

Choco Red Dot is confident and self-assured. She shows no stress in new situations, around new people, or the circumstances that should be considered stressful. This puppy reacts appropriately to new sights and sounds, including those that should be considered startling. She has a good memory, focus, and problem-solving abilities average for her age and stage of development. She has very good motivations for interaction and food, and she is interested in toys. Red Dot is socially appropriate in her interactions with littermates. She is also socially appropriate in her interactions with people. She does use her mouth to initiate or engage and play, but has excellent bite inhibition. She is rarely vocal. Overall, the Choco litter has no red flags and shows no possessiveness. They are all comfortable and tolerant of handling and restraint. This litter is very gentle and actively seek out this type of interaction. These puppies are incredibly consistent with very few differences between them. Differences will become more pronounced as they have different social and learning experiences. These puppies have moderate energy. They are bubbly, happy, social, and eager. They are personable, affectionate, playful, and curious. They are well-balanced, and should adapt well into most any home.
