Individual Notes:

Gwen white is confident and self-assured. She shows no stress in new situations, around new people, or in circumstances that should typically be considered stressful. She reacts appropriately to new sights and sounds. She is curious and investigative, this includes sights and sounds which would typically be considered startling. She has a very good memory, focus, and problem-solving abilities average to her age and stage of development. She also has very good motivations for interaction and food. She has a good motivation for toys. She is socially appropriate in her interactions with litter mates, cats and with other dogs. She is also socially appropriate in her interactions with people. She is rarely vocal. She also rarely uses her mouth to initiate or engage in play and has excellent bite inhibition if she does. The litter overall have no red flags and show no possessiveness. They all have mid-level energy. They are very consistent with subtle differences between them. These differences will become more pronounced as these puppies have different socialization and learning experiences. They are all personable, affectionate, gentle and engaging. They are happy and content to explore and play on their own, while not being too independent. They are gentle and respectful. They are curious and happy. These puppies are very well balanced and should adapt well into most any home.
