Individual Notes:

Haven blue is very confident and self-assured. He shows no stress in new situations, around new people, or in circumstances typically considered stressful. He is curious and investigative with new sites and sounds, including those that should be considered startling. He has a good memory, focus, and problem-solving abilities above average for his age and stage of development. He also has excellent motivations for interaction and good motivation for food and toys. He is socially appropriate in his interactions with litter mates, cats and with other dogs. Blue can be a little pushy in his effort to get and keep your attention, but otherwise he is socially appropriate in his interactions with people. He rarely uses his mouth and has excellent bite inhibition if he does. Blue vocalizes to get and keep your attention but it is easily managed. The litter overall have no red flags and show no possessiveness. Blue has moderate energy. He is playful, curious, social, happy and very people focused. He is very personable and affectionate. He is calm and gentle with handling and interaction. He would prefer to be with people then each other or anything else. He will do best in a home that is going to be interactive with him. The rest of the litter is playful curious, social, and happy. They are content to explore and play on their own, but prefer to be with people. These puppies are well balanced. This litter will do best in a home that is going to be interactive with them.
