Individual Notes:

Haven pink is very confident and self-assured. She shows no stress in new situations, around new people, or in circumstances typically considered stressful. She is curious and investigative with new sites and sounds, including those that should be considered startling. She has a good memory, focus, and problem-solving abilities above average for her age and stage of development. She also has excellent motivations for interaction and good motivation for food and toys. She is socially appropriate in her interactions with litter mates, cats and with other dogs. Pink can be a little pushy in her effort to get and keep your attention, but otherwise she is socially appropriate in her interactions with people. She rarely uses her mouth and has excellent bite inhibition if she does. Pink vocalizes to get and keep your attention but it is easily managed. The litter overall have no red flags and show no possessiveness. Pink has moderate energy. She is playful, curious, social, happy and very people focused. She is very personable and affectionate. She is calm and gentle with handling and interaction. She would prefer to be with people then each other or anything else. She will do best in a home that is going to be interactive with her. The rest of the litter is playful curious, social, and happy. They are content to explore and play on their own, but prefer to be with people. These puppies are well balanced. This litter will do best in a home that is going to be interactive with them.
