Individual Notes:

Mia orange is very confident in self-assured. He shows no stress in new situations, around new people, or in circumstances that are typically considered stressful. He is curious and investigative with new sites and sounds, including those that should be startling. He has a good memory, focus, and problem solving abilities average to his agent stage of development. He also has good motivations for interaction and toys. He is interested in food. He is socially appropriate in his interactions with litter mates, cats and other dogs. He is also socially appropriate in his interactions with people. He does use his mouth to initiate and engage in play. He does have very good bite inhibition. He is rarely vocal. Orange has moderate energy. The litter overall have no red flags and show no possessiveness. These puppies are all comfortable and tolerant of handling and restraint, although can be a bit wiggly due to the interaction. These puppies are very playful, curious, social and happy. They are eager and engaging. They are all content to explore and play on their own while still being very personable and affectionate. These puppies are well balanced and should do well in most any home that will meet their needs for activity.
