Individual Notes:

Mila red is confident and self-assured. Although, she needs a little time to adjust into new situations, she shows little to no stress in new situations, around new people, or in circumstances typically considered stressful. She is curious and investigative with new sites and sounds, including those that are startling. She has a good memory, focus and problem-solving abilities average for her age and stage of development. She also has good motivations for interaction, food, and toys at fairly equal and balanced levels. She is socially appropriate in her interactions with litter mates, cats, and with other dogs. She is also socially appropriate in her interactions with people. She rarely uses her mouth to initiate or engage in play. When she does, she has excellent bite inhibition. She is rarely vocal. The litter overall have no red flags and show no possessiveness. They are all comfortable and tolerant of handling and restraint. These puppies are very consistent with very few differences between them. Individual puppy personality traits will become more defined as they have different learning and socialization experiences. All of these puppies have mid to moderate energy. All of these puppies are very well balanced. They are content to explore and play on their own while not being too independent. They are personable and affectionate without being pushy or over bearing. These puppies are playful, curious, social, and happy. They are eager and engaging. These puppies are very well balanced, and should adjust well into most any home that will allow them to adjust without being overwhelmed.
