Individual Notes:

Vanessa red is confident and self-assured. She shows little to no stress in new situations, around new people, or in circumstances that are typically considered stressful. She reacts appropriately to new sites and sounds, including those that should be considered startling. She is curious and investigative. She has a good memory, focus, and problem-solving abilities average to her age and stage of development. She also has good motivations at fairly balanced levels for interaction, food and toys. She is socially appropriate in her interactions with litter mates, cats and with other dogs. She is also socially appropriate in her interactions with people. She rarely uses her mouth to initiate or engage in play and has excellent bite inhibition if she does. She also is rarely vocal. She is pretty easy-going and seems to take most everything in stride. The litter overall have no red flags and show no possessiveness. They are all comfortable and tolerant of handling and restraint. These puppies are very consistent with very few differences between them. They all have mid-level energy. They are very well balanced. They are content to explore and play on their own without being overly independent. They are personable and engaging without being pushy. These puppies are social, happy, curious, and playful. They are very well balanced and should adapt well into most any home.
