Individual Notes:

Madison Green is confident and self-assured. After a little time to adjust into a new situation he shows little to no stress. He also shows no stress around new people, or in circumstances, typically considered stressful. Green reacts appropriately to new sights and sounds, including those that are startling, he is curious and investigative. Madison Green has good memory, focus, and problem-solving abilities above average for his age and stage of development. He also has very good motivations for interaction and food and good interest in toys. This puppy is socially appropriate in his interactions with litter mates, cats and with other dogs. He is also socially appropriate in their interactions with people. Green rarely uses his mouth and has excellent bite inhibition. Green is rarely vocal.

Overall the Madson litter is very consistent with very few differences between them. They have no red flags and show no possessiveness. They are all comfortable and tolerant of handling and restraint. These puppies are playful curious, social and happy. They are very personable and affectionate. They are a little timid in new situations, but adjust very well on their own. They are naturally gentle and respectful. These puppies are content to explore and play on their own, but are not overly independent. These puppies are well balanced, and should adapt well into most any home. This litter already is showing an inclination towards being potty trained
