Individual Notes:

Portia Red is confident and self-assured. She shows little to no stress in new situations, around new people, or in circumstances that are typically considered stressful. Red is curious and investigative of new sights and sounds, including sights and sounds that could be considered startling. She also has very good motivations for interaction, food, and toys. Red is socially appropriate in her interactions with littermates, cats, other dogs and people. Red is rarely vocal. She does use her mouth initiate or engage in play but has very good bite inhibition. Red is comfortable and tolerant of handling and restraint. Red is playful, curious, bubbly and happy. She has a mid-to moderate level energy. She should adapt well in most any home.

Overall, the Portia litter has no red flags and shows no possessiveness. They are fairly consistent, with very few differences between them. All of these puppies are sociable, personable, and affectionate. These puppies are also content to explore and play on their own and are very well balanced. These puppies do need a little time to adjust to new situations. This litter has very good memory, focus, and problem-solving abilities above average for their age and stage of development.

Health notes:

Red has no health notes.
