Individual Notes:

Annabelle green is confident and self-assured after a little time to adjust into a new situation. He shows little to no stress in new situations, around new people, and in circumstances that are typically considered stressful. He reacts appropriately to new sites and sounds, including those that should be considered startling. He is curious and investigative. He has very good memory, focus, and problem-solving abilities above average for his age and stage of development. He also has very good motivations for interaction and food and good interest in toys. He is socially appropriate in his interactions with litter mates, cats and with other dogs. He is also socially appropriate in his interactions with people. He rarely uses his mouth to initiate or engage in play, and has excellent bite inhibition if he does. He is rarely vocal. Green has exceptional focus, and is very gentle with interactions. He has good potential for service or therapy work. The litter overall have no red flags and show no possessiveness. They are all comfortable and tolerant of handling and restraint. Most of these actively seeking out this type of interaction. These puppies are very consistent. Individual traits will become more pronounced as they have different learning and growing experiences. These puppies have mid to moderate energy. They are playful, curious, social and happy. They are content to explore and play on their own, but would prefer to be with and around people. The entire litter is very people oriented. They are personable and affectionate. They are gentle with handling and interaction. They are social, happy, bubbly, and playful. The litter is well, balanced, and should fit up well into most any home. They have a good potential for therapy work.
