Individual Notes:

The Paprika litter overall is very confident and self-assured. They show no stress in new situations, around new people or in circumstances typically considered stressful. They are curious and investigated with new sites and sounds, they actively engage and check out whatever it is. This includes the sights and sounds that should be considered startling. These puppies have very good memory, focus, and problem-solving abilities for their age and stage of development. They are also already showing an inclination towards potty training. They have excellent motivations for interaction and food. They have good interest in toys. These puppies are socially appropriate in their interactions with one another, with cats, and with other dogs. They are also socially appropriate in their interactions with people. Red is rarely vocal although she does vocalize somewhat during socially appropriate play. It is easily managed and or redirected. She rarely uses her mouth to initiate or engage in play, but she has excellent bite inhibition if she does. Red has no red flags and shows no possessiveness. Red has Moderate energy.

Overall, these puppies are very consistent with very few and subtle differences between them. They are all very personable and affectionate, eager and engaging. They are bubbly, happy, social, and playful. They are curious and content to explore and play on their own although they prefer to be with an around people. They are all very comfortable and tolerant of handling in restraint. Most of these puppies actively seeking out this type of interaction these puppies are very well balanced and should adapt well in most any home.
