Individual Notes:

The Paprika litter overall is confident and self-assured, but need a little time to adjust into a brand new situation. These puppies overall are curious and investigative of new sites and sounds, including those that should be considered startling. They have very good memory, focus, and problem-solving abilities for their age and stage of development. They also have excellent motivation for food, interaction, and toys at fairly equal and balanced levels. These puppies overall are socially appropriate in their interactions with one another, with cats, and with other dogs. They are also socially appropriate in their interactions with people. Orange and Blue can be vocal during play and in socially appropriate situations, but it is easily managed and redirected and used quite a lot to initiate and engage and play, but have excellent bite inhibition. Green needs a little more time to adjust into new situations but does so very well and on his own. He can be a little unsure and needs to be time to adjust things without being overwhelmed. These puppies have red flags and possessiveness. They all have moderate energy. They are curious, playful, social and happy. They are content explore and play on their own while still being very personable and engaging. These puppies are so playful, curious and happy. They are very well balanced and should adjust well into most home.
