Individual Notes:

The Viola litter overall is very confident and self-assured. They show no stress in new situations, around new people, or in circumstances typically considered stressful. These puppies overall are curious and investigative with new sites and sounds, including those that should be considered startling. These puppies have outstanding focus, memory, and problem-solving abilities above average for their age and stage of development. These puppies have very good motivation for interaction, food, and toys at fairly equal and balanced levels. Green and Green Dot have the highest levels of motivation across the board. Overall, these puppies do use their mouth a lot to initiate and engage and play, but they have excellent bite inhibition. These puppies are vocal in socially appropriate situations and when trying to engage and interact, particularly Green, Blue Dot, and Red Dot. These puppies actively work to get and keep your attention. These puppies are all socially appropriate in their interactions with one another, with cats, and with other dogs, They are also socially appropriate in their interactions with people. They have no red flags and show no possessiveness. They are all very comfortable and tolerant of handling and restraint. This litter is very consistent with very subtle differences between individual puppies. They all have mid to moderate energy. They are all very well-balanced. They are content to explore and play on their own, but are very eager and engaging. These puppies are personable and affectionate. They are thinking puppies and will do best in a home that is going to be engaging with them. These puppies are curious and playful. They all have potential for therapy work and good potential for service work
