

Hadley Girls Temperament Assessments

Date Of Birth 7/12/2024

Hadley Litter Photo Album

7 Week Litter Video

Litter Overview:

The Hadley girls all share very similar, well-balanced temperaments, making them a fantastic litter to be around. They are confident, playful, and affectionate, with personalities that will easily adapt to a variety of home environments. White stands out as the most motivated by human interaction, often staying close, but still enjoys playtime with her siblings. These puppies have great temperaments and are a joy to be around!

Hadley Pink

Pink is confident without being overly assertive. She has a playful, silly side and enjoys exploring new things, especially toys. She is content to entertain herself but equally enjoys playing with her littermates and receiving attention and affection from people.

- Energy Level: Mid-moderate
 - Temperament Notes: Tolerant and balanced with no red flags.
-

Hadley Red

Red is a happy, confident puppy who isn't fearful or timid. She shows curiosity about her surroundings and responds eagerly to noise, movement, and invitations to engage. Red is affectionate, often taking breaks from play to bond with people.

- Energy Level: Moderate
 - Temperament Notes: Joyful and focused with no red flags.
-

Hadley White

- Breeder's Pick, Enrolled into 16 Week Prep School

White loves being around people and will easily form strong bonds. She stays close by and is attentive to what you're doing, making her a great Prep School candidate due to her focus and desire to please. She is respectful in her interactions, never pushy or needy, and is extremely patient and easy to handle. White is an easygoing puppy who will transition seamlessly into any home environment.

- Energy Level: Moderate
 - Temperament Notes: No red flags, strong candidate for training.
-

Health Notes:

None

All three Hadley girls test very similar. White is the most motivated by human interaction and will stay close. She still enjoys playing with her siblings though. They are all nice puppies to be around with balanced well rounded personalities. Fantastic litter!

Pink - confident, but not too assertive. Silly in her play. She likes to explore new things and enjoys toys. She's content to entertain herself, but likes to play with her little mates and enjoys attention and affection from people.

She has a mid moderate energy level and is very tolerant. No red flags.

Red - happy and confident puppy. Not fearful or timid. Has good focus and is curious of her surroundings. just a joyful puppy.

She's excited to respond to noise and movement and invitations to engage.

She loves affection. Will take time out of her play to engage with you.

White - (BP) loves people and will bond easily. She likes to stay close and pay attention to what you're doing. Great Prep school candidate because of her focus and drive to please. Not pushy or needy. Very respectful with her interactions. Just a kind puppy. She is good with handling and very patient. Such an easy puppy to be around to transition very easily to any home environment. No red flags.

No health notes