Peach Boys Litter Overview:

The Peach boys are a sweet, affectionate group of puppies, each with a gentle demeanor and the potential to bond closely with their people. They range from slightly shy to confident and easygoing, making them adaptable to various home environments. They have low to moderate energy levels, and their love for human interaction makes them excellent candidates for bonding and training. No red flags were noted for any of the puppies.

Peach Blue

- Energy Level: Mid-level
- Personality: Blue is a sweet and slightly shy puppy at first, but once he builds trust, he becomes very motivated to bond with his person. He's most comfortable being close to people and will likely form a deep attachment, craving constant companionship. Blue is gentle, patient with handling, and mannerly in his interactions. However, he may get overwhelmed in busy or loud environments, so he would do best in a calm, quieter home where he can adjust at his own pace. No red flags were noted, though his environment will be key to his success. Blue's loving spirit and desire for closeness make him a wonderful companion.

Peach Green

- Energy Level: Moderate
- Personality: Green is a happy, confident puppy from the start, eagerly seeking attention from people. He is great with handling and loves one-on-one affection, needing little to no time to adjust to new surroundings. Green sticks close by and pays attention to your every move, showing excellent focus and strong motivation for training. His easygoing nature and love for human interaction make him an adaptable companion who should do well in most households. No red flags were noted.

Peach Orange

- Energy Level: Mid-Moderate level
- Personality: Orange is a sweet, mannerly puppy who is patient and tolerant with handling. He loves attention and affection but is not needy or pushy in his interactions. Orange enjoys independent play and time to explore on his own but equally enjoys interactive play when given the opportunity. His middle-of-the-road personality makes him an easygoing companion who will integrate smoothly into most family dynamics. No red flags were noted.
