Tilly Litter Temperament Overview:

The Tilly litter overall is confident and self assured, although some of the puppies needed just a little time to adjust into new situations. These puppies show little to no stress in new situations, around new people, or in circumstances typically considered stressful. They react appropriately to new sights and sounds. They are curious and investigative. They do startle with new sounds, but immediately adjust and begin to check things out. These puppies have outstanding motivation for interaction and good motivation for food. They have good interest in toys. These puppies are socially appropriate in their interactions with one another, with cats, and with other dogs. They are also socially appropriate in their interactions with people. They do use their mouth somewhat to initiate or engage in play, but have excellent bite inhibition. These puppies can be vocal in their effort to get and keep your attention. These puppies have no red flags and show no possessiveness. Overall these puppies are content to explore and play on their own, but prefer to be with an around people. They are very social and engaging. They are playful and sweet. They act a little silly in an effort to get your attention. Over all these puppies are fairly consistent with subtle differences between individuals . A lot of these puppies have good potential for therapy work because they genuinely love interaction with people. This is a very tractable litter. These puppies are well balanced, and should do well and most any home that is going to be interactive with them.
