Kassandra Boys Temperament Overview:

The Kassandra litter overall is confident and self-assured. They show no stress in new situations, around new people, or in circumstances typically considered stressful. These puppies have very good memory, focus, and problem-solving abilities above average for their age and stage of development. These puppies also have excellent motivation for interaction and good motivation for treats and toys. These puppies are socially appropriate in their interactions with one another, with cats, and with other dogs. They are also socially appropriate in their interactions with people. All of these are very people-oriented and will be wonderful companions!

These puppies have no red flags and show no possessiveness. They are all comfortable and tolerant of handling and restraint. Most of these puppies actively seek out this type of interaction. They are rarely vocal. Overall, these puppies are very well-balanced, social, sweet, and happy. They genuinely enjoy interacting with people and most any puppy in the litter has good potential for therapy work.
