Cleo Boys Temperament Overview:

The Cleo litter overall is confident and self-assured. They show little to no stress in new situations, around new people, or in circumstances typically considered stressful. These puppies react appropriately to new sights and sounds, being curious and investigative. These puppies have good memory, focus, and problem-solving abilities average to their age and stage of development. They also have excellent motivations for interaction and good motivation for food and toys.

These puppies are socially appropriate and their interactions with one another, with cats, and with other dogs. They are also socially appropriate in their interactions with people. They rarely use their mouth to initiate or engage in play and have an excellent bite inhibition if they do. They are rarely vocal and have no red flags or show possessiveness. They are all comfortable and tolerant of handling and restraint. They are very consistent puppy to puppy with very subtle differences between them. Many of these puppies show potential for therapy work due to their naturally intuitive, affectionate, and people-oriented personalities.
