Myra Boys Temperament Overview:

The Myra litter overall is confident and self assured. They show little to no stress in new situations, around new people, or in circumstances typically considered stressful. These puppies overall have good memory, focus, and problem-solving abilities, average to their age and stage of development. They also have very good motivation for interaction food and toys. These puppies are socially appropriate and their interactions with one another, with cats, and with other dogs.

They are also socially appropriate in their interactions with people and rarely use their mouth to initiate or engage in play. They have excellent bite inhibition and have no red flags or show any possessiveness. Overall they are all comfortable and tolerant of handling and restraint. These puppies should adapt well into most any home. They are fairly consistent with very subtle differences in between individuals..
