Belgium Girls Temperament Overview:

The Belgium litter is overall confident and self-assured. They show little to no stress in new situations, around new people, or in circumstances typically considered stressful. These puppies react appropriately to new sights and sounds. They are curious and investigative, even when exposed to sights and sounds that might typically be considered startling.

These puppies demonstrate very good memory, focus, and problem-solving abilities that are above average for their age and stage of development. They also show excellent motivation for interaction and food, along with a strong interest in toys.

Their social interactions are appropriate with one another, with cats, with other dogs, and with people. Overall, this litter is gentle in their interactions and genuinely enjoys spending time with people. Most of them show good potential for therapy work. There are no red flags in this litter. They show no signs of possessiveness and are comfortable and tolerant of handling and restraint.
