Vanessa Boys Temperament Overview:

The Vanessa litter is overall very confident and self-assured. They show no signs of stress in new situations, around new people, or in circumstances typically considered stressful. These puppies react appropriately to new sights and sounds and are naturally curious and investigative—even with sights and sounds that might typically be considered startling.

They demonstrate very good memory, focus, and problem-solving abilities that are above average for their age and stage of development. They also have excellent motivation for interaction, food, and toys, with interaction being their strongest motivator.

These puppies are socially appropriate in their interactions with one another, with cats, with other dogs, and with people. They rarely use their mouths to initiate or engage in play, but if they do, they show excellent bite inhibition. They are also rarely vocal. There are no red flags in this litter, and they show no signs of possessiveness. They are comfortable and tolerant of handling and restraint, and most actively seek out this kind of interaction. We have repeated this breeding a few times with very consistent results. Any puppy from this litter has excellent potential for service or therapy work. Historically, this line produces smart, sweet, affectionate, and happy puppies that grow into outstanding family pets, therapy dogs, and service candidates.
