Miri Girls Temperament Overview:

The Miri litter is overall confident and self-assured. While a couple of puppies may need a little time to adjust to new situations, they settle in well on their own. These puppies show little to no stress in unfamiliar environments, around new people, or in circumstances typically considered stressful.

They have excellent motivation for interaction and strong motivation for food and toys. Their memory, focus, and problem-solving abilities are well above average for their age and stage of development. Socially, they are appropriate with one another, with cats, with other dogs, and with people. Pink can be a bit pushy in her efforts to gain attention and may vocalize more frequently to initiate interaction or express excitement.

These puppies have excellent bite inhibition, no red flags, and show no possessiveness. They are all comfortable and tolerant of handling and restraint, with most actively seeking it out. Overall, this litter is social, playful, eager, engaging, highly people-oriented, and intuitive.
