Sansa Girls Temperament Overview:

The Sansa litter is overall confident and self-assured. Unless otherwise noted, these puppies show no stress in new situations, around unfamiliar people, or in environments typically considered stressful. They are curious and investigative when exposed to new sights and sounds, including those that would typically be considered startling.

These puppies demonstrate age-appropriate memory, focus, and problem-solving abilities. They are highly motivated by interaction, food, and toys. Socially, they are appropriate in their interactions with one another, with cats, with other dogs, and with people. They may use their mouths to initiate or engage in play, but have excellent bite inhibition. They are rarely vocal, and no red flags or signs of possessiveness were observed. Overall, these puppies are very consistent in temperament, with only subtle differences between individual.
