Muffins Boys Temperament Overview:

The Muffins litter is confident and self-assured, with only a couple of puppies needing a brief moment to adjust in new situations. They show little to no stress when meeting new people or in circumstances typically considered stressful. They are curious and investigative with new sights and sounds, including those that might typically be startling. Red Dot and Pink Stripe initially startled with new sounds but recovered very well on their own.

This litter has very good memory, focus, and problem-solving abilities for their age and stage of development. They have excellent motivation for interaction, good motivation for food, and good motivation for toys. Socially, they are appropriate with one another, with cats, and with other dogs. They are also appropriate with people, rarely vocal, and rarely using their mouths to initiate play—when they do, they have excellent bite inhibition.

They are comfortable and tolerant of handling and restraint, with no red flags or possessiveness. Overall, the Muffins litter is well-balanced, gentle, sweet, eager, and engaging, making them well-suited to adapt into most any home.
