Genevieve Litter Temperament Overview:

The Genevieve litter is confident, self-assured, and shows little to no stress in new situations, whether around people or in circumstances typically considered stressful. They react appropriately to new sights and sounds, even those that could be considered startling. These puppies demonstrate good memory, focus, and problem-solving abilities appropriate for their age and stage of development. They are highly motivated by interaction, show excellent motivation for food, and good motivation for toys.

Socially, they are very appropriate in their interactions with one another, as well as with cats, other dogs, and people. They may use their mouths to initiate or engage in play but have excellent bite inhibition. They are rarely vocal, display no red flags, and show no signs of possessiveness. Each puppy is comfortable and tolerant of handling and restraint. Overall, this litter is well-balanced, curious, and happy, with consistent temperaments and only slight differences between individuals. They should adapt well into most any home.
