Kate x Scotch — Parent Overview

Kate is an incredibly sweet and shy girl with a tender, heart-melting presence. She loves nothing more than being held, cuddled, and tucked into a lap. While she isn't the most confident in brand-new environments, she is deeply respectful, very gentle, and brings an undeniable "awww" factor wherever she goes. It's hard for anyone to meet her without immediately wanting to scoop her up — a reaction she absolutely adores.

Breed: F1 Schnoodle

Weight: 10lbs

Scotch offers a lovely counterbalance. He brings a quiet confidence, a sharp intelligence, and an eagerness for training that shines in everything he does. He pairs this with a warm love for people, a strong desire to please, and an engaging temperament that makes him both reliable and deeply charming. His smarts may keep you on your toes at times — but in all the best ways.

Breed: Mini Poodle

Weight: 15lbs

Together, Kate and Scotch are expected to produce puppies who are a beautiful blend of gentle sweetness and soft self-assurance. Their puppies should be affectionate, respectful, and people-oriented, with the confidence needed to adapt and work through new situations. With their gentle nature and strong desire to engage, this litter should have exceptional potential — both as loving companions and as dogs who can assist and support their families' needs in meaningful ways.
