Myra x Korbin — Parent Overview

Myra is a girl who wholeheartedly believes she is the center of attention — and honestly, she's not wrong. She works hard to make sure you're engaging with her, and her bubbly, happy, affectionate personality makes her impossible to resist. She has a sweet, playful sassiness to her and isn't shy about "talking" to you when you're not giving her the level of focus she thinks she deserves. In her world, the right way to love her is with plenty of hugs, snuggles, and uninterrupted cuddle time.

Breed: F1 Schnoodle

Weight: 13lbs

Korbin is her perfect complement — reserved, gentle, and wonderfully calm. He is sweet, obedient, and playful, but he would absolutely prefer a good day of lounging on the couch. He is easygoing, tolerant, and incredibly intelligent, picking up on whatever you ask of him with impressive clarity and responsiveness.

Breed: Mini Poodle

Weight: 14lbs

Together, Myra and Korbin are expected to produce puppies who are a fantastic blend of both personalities — eager to please, respectful, engaged, and deeply personable. Their puppies should be affectionate, people-focused, and naturally inclined to form strong bonds with their families.
