Harlem x Brutus — Parent Overview

Harlem is full of life — playful, sweet, and wonderfully gentle when being handled. She adores attention and will happily work to earn it, bringing a bright, happy energy to every interaction. Her joyful spirit and eagerness to engage make her such a lovable presence.

Breed: Mini Schnauzer

Weight: 12.1lbs

Brutus, on the other hand, is a giant dog in a tiny package. No one has informed him that he's small, so he approaches every outing, adventure, and interaction with the confidence of a 120-pound mastiff. He is loving, affectionate, eager, and absolutely convinced that the world is here just for him. With his happy nature, athletic ability, and big personality, he quickly becomes the center of attention wherever he goes.

Breed: Mini Poodle

Weight: 9lbs

Together, Harlem and Brutus are expected to produce puppies who are bubbly, happy, and full of personality — tiny furry cheerleaders with bright, enthusiastic spirits. Their puppies will likely be bouncy, eager, engaging, and thrilled simply to be part of whatever is happening. This litter should bring an energetic, joyful presence into any loving home.
