

Barbie Boys Temperament Assessments

F2BB Extra Small Teddybear Goldendoodle

Date of Birth: 2/19/2026

Litter Temperament Overview:

The Barbie litter is a fun, confident, and engaging group of puppies who are very intelligent and naturally curious. They carry a mid to moderate energy level, leaning closer to the mid side, making them easy to manage and not overwhelming despite their playful nature. This litter is well-balanced and highly adaptable, showing both independence and a genuine desire to connect with people. They are silly, entertaining, and full of personality, while still being thoughtful and capable of settling nicely. Overall, these puppies will integrate beautifully into a wide variety of home environments and make wonderful, interactive companions.

Blue

- Energy Level: Mid to Moderate
- Personality: Blue is a confident and playful puppy with a naturally silly and engaging personality. He shows a nice level of independence, enjoying time exploring and interacting with his environment, while still checking in and seeking attention when the opportunity arises. Like his littermates, he is curious and fun to watch, bringing a lighthearted and easygoing presence. Blue is well-balanced and adaptable, making him a great fit for a variety of home environments.
- Health Notes: N/A

Green

- Energy Level: Mid to Moderate
- Personality: Green is a confident, playful puppy with a strong people-oriented side. While he enjoys engaging with toys and playing independently, he stands out as the most motivated by human interaction and will actively seek attention and connection. He is expressive and fun, even using his own little bark to initiate play, which adds to his charm. Green is well-balanced and engaging, with a natural ability to connect, making him a wonderful companion for those looking for a more people-focused puppy.
- Health Notes: N/A

Orange

- Energy Level: Mid to Moderate
- Personality: Orange is a confident and silly puppy with a playful and independent nature. He enjoys exploring, interacting with toys, and engaging with his surroundings, while still being social and interactive when given the opportunity. As one of the smallest in the group, he carries his personality with confidence and ease. Orange is well-balanced, curious, and adaptable, making him a fun and easy addition to a variety of home environments.
- Health Notes: N/A

