Chanel x Brutus — Parent Overview

Chanel is a sweet, affectionate, and highly engaging girl who truly thrives on human interaction. She goes out of her way to seek connection at every opportunity, making her deeply people-oriented and wonderfully attentive. Her affectionate nature and desire to be involved create a warm, interactive presence.

Breed: F1B Schnoodle

Weight: 23lbs

Brutus is a giant dog in a tiny package. No one has told him he's small, and he approaches every outing, adventure, and interaction with the confidence of a 120-pound mastiff. He is loving, eager, affectionate, and absolutely certain that everyone and everything is there just for him. Fun, happy, and extremely athletic, Brutus brings bold personality and enthusiasm to this pairing.

Breed: Mini Poodle

Weight: 9lbs

Together, Chanel and Brutus are expected to produce puppies that are unapologetic in their pursuit of affection—sweet, engaging, and highly people-focused. We anticipate mid-level, possibly mid to moderate energy levels, with confident, interactive temperaments that should make them welcome additions to a wide variety of home environments.
