Litter Temperament Overview:

The Catalina x Benson litter is a very confident, intelligent, and socially appropriate group that continues to reflect exactly what we have seen in this repeat pairing. These puppies are very happy, eager-to-please, and naturally people-oriented, with a strong desire to engage and connect. They are curious and investigative in new environments, showing little to no stress with new sights, sounds, or interactions.

This litter demonstrates excellent problem-solving ability, focus, and motivation for both food and toys. Socially, they are very appropriate with one another, as well as with people and other animals. They are patient with handling, adaptable, and able to settle nicely while still enjoying play and interaction. Energy levels range from mid to mid-moderate, making them versatile companions that will transition smoothly into a wide variety of homes. Overall, this is a well-balanced, confident, and engaging group with strong potential for therapy or emotional support roles.

Catalina Blue

- Energy Level: Mid
- Personality: Blue is a very well-balanced, “middle of the road” boy with a calm and easygoing presence. He is naturally people-oriented but carries himself with a slightly more respectful and composed demeanor. He is content to entertain himself when needed, while still enjoying interaction and engagement. Blue has great manners, appropriate play style, and a steady temperament that makes him very easy to live with. He will transition smoothly into most home environments and make a dependable, well-rounded companion.
- Health Notes: N/A

Catalina Green

POTENTIAL THERAPY / ESA CANDIDATE

- Energy Level: Mid to Moderate
- Personality: Green is the most people-driven of the group and truly a “people puppy.” He actively works to maintain attention and connection, consistently seeking out engagement and interaction. He is confident, self-assured, and eager to please, with a strong desire to be involved in whatever his people are doing. His higher level of engagement and attentiveness makes him especially well-suited for a home that wants a very interactive, connected companion.
- Health Notes: N/A

Catalina Orange

- Energy Level: Mid
- Personality: Orange is a sweet, easygoing boy with a gentle and naturally calm presence. He has a nice level of playfulness but carries it in a softer, more relaxed way compared to some of his brothers. He is confident and content, showing a steady, go-with-the-flow temperament. Orange enjoys interaction and one-on-one attention, and like his littermates, he finds that sense of contentment when spending time with his people. He is very patient with handling and easy to work with, making him a lovely, well-mannered companion. His combination of gentle nature, confidence, and adaptability will allow him to transition smoothly into a variety of home environments.
- Health Notes: N/A

Catalina Blue Dot

- Energy Level: Mid
- Personality: Blue Dot is another well-balanced, middle-of-the-road puppy with a calm and composed personality. He is people-oriented but slightly more naturally respectful and easygoing in how he engages. He is content playing independently but also enjoys interaction and one-on-one attention. Blue Dot has great manners, appropriate play, and a steady temperament that will make him a very adaptable and easy companion in a variety of home environments.
- Health Notes: N/A

Catalina Green Dot

- Energy Level: Mid to Moderate
- Personality: Green Dot is a spunky, fun, and confident boy with a sweet and engaging personality. He is playful and outgoing while still maintaining a nice balance overall. He carries a high level of confidence and should transition easily into a wide variety of homes. Green Dot enjoys interaction, play, and connection, making him a fun and lively companion while still being well-rounded and adaptable.
- Health Notes: N/A

Catalina x Benson — Parent Overview

Catalina:

Weight: 42lbs

Breed: F1 Goldendoodle

Benson:

Weight: 21lbs

Breed: Moyen Poodle

This is a repeat breeding, allowing us to rely on established temperament data from the previous Catalina litter. That group was overall very confident and self-assured, showing no stress in new situations—whether around unfamiliar people or in environments typically considered challenging. They approached new sights and sounds, including those that may be startling, with curiosity and an investigative mindset.

The puppies demonstrated good memory, focus, and age-appropriate problem-solving skills, along with excellent motivation for interaction and strong drive for both food and toys. Socially, they were appropriate and well-mannered with one another, with cats and other dogs, and with people. While they could occasionally be a bit pushy in their eagerness for attention, this was rooted in strong social motivation rather than any negative behavior. Mouthiness during play was present but paired with excellent bite inhibition, and vocalization was minimal. No red flags or possessiveness were observed.

Together, this pairing consistently produces confident, happy, and highly social puppies with strong engagement and people-focused motivation. With their balanced temperaments and adaptability, these puppies show excellent potential for therapy-style work and should transition smoothly into a wide variety of home environments.
