Litter Temperament Overview:

The Jenna x Bruce litter is showing exactly what we hoped to see from this pairing—gentle, sweet, and very people-oriented puppies with kind, easygoing temperaments. These puppies are very intelligent and show mid to moderate energy levels, with a beautiful mix of playfulness, curiosity, and calm companionship. This litter has a soft, affectionate nature overall and will be a wonderful fit for families looking for a loving, steady companion who still enjoys play and connection.

Pink

- Energy Level: Moderate
- Personality: Pink is an active, playful girl with great stamina and enthusiasm for play. She has the most energy of the girls and can keep going longer before slowing down. She loves engaging with her littermates and enjoys active, interactive play. She is busy, confident, and full of life, making her a wonderful fit for an active home that enjoys a playful, spirited companion.
- Health Notes: N/A

Red

- Energy Level: Mid to Moderate
- Personality: Red is the most observant and slightly more reserved of the girls. She takes a few minutes longer to warm up compared to her sisters, often pausing briefly to take in her surroundings before joining in. Once comfortable, she is playful and engaged, but naturally a bit calmer and more thoughtful in her approach. She is curious, gentle, and exploratory, making her a lovely balance of playfulness and composure.
- Health Notes: N/A

White

- Energy Level: Mid to Moderate
- Personality: White is a playful and curious girl who enjoys exploring and occasionally breaking off on her own to enjoy a toy independently. She is content entertaining herself but is always happy to rejoin play when invited by her littermates. She has a confident and easygoing nature and fits right in with the playful energy of the group.
- Health Notes: N/A

Pink Dot

- Energy Level: Mid to Moderate
- Personality: Pink Dot is a fun and playful girl who enjoys both toys and her siblings. She will pause occasionally to seek out attention and affection, though it doesn't take long before she's right back to playing. She enjoys a good snuggle after she has burned off some energy. She is also the smallest of the girls and is expected to mature closer to ~30 lbs, while her sisters will likely mature around 35–40 lbs. She is social, sweet, and balanced, with a wonderful blend of playfulness and affection.
- Health Notes: N/A

Meet The Parents

Jenna x Bruce — Parent Overview

Jenna is a gentle, well-balanced, and affectionate girl. She approaches life with a very even-keel, which pairs beautifully with her naturally soft and loving disposition. Jenna carries a calm sweetness about her and is simply a big sweetheart who enjoys connection and quiet companionship.

Breed: F1B Schnoodle

Weight: 40lbs

Bruce is on a similar wavelength—sweet, gentle, and playful in a soft, endearing way. He can be a bit timid at first, especially around new people, but once he has a moment to settle in, his kind and affectionate nature shines through clearly. Bruce brings a thoughtful and tender presence to this pairing.

Breed: F1B Goldendoodle

Weight: 26lbs

Together, Jenna and Bruce are expected to produce puppies that reflect their parents' gentle and easygoing temperaments. We anticipate sweet, affectionate puppies with kind, fun personalities and mid-level energy. This litter should be a particularly wonderful fit for calmer households looking for a loving, steady companion.
