

Juneau Boys Temperament Assessment

F1B Medium Teddybear Goldendoodle

Date of Birth: 3/4/2026

Litter Temperament Overview:

The Juneau litter is a beautifully balanced, intelligent, and people-oriented group with mid to moderate energy levels across the board. These puppies are confident without being pushy, highly tolerant of handling, and naturally engaging with people. They show a wonderful blend of curiosity, playfulness, and steadiness, making them adaptable companions for a wide variety of homes. Several puppies in this litter display strong early indicators for therapy or emotional support roles. Overall, this litter stands out for their gentle confidence, social nature, and willingness to bond deeply with their people.

Blue

POTENTIAL ESA / THERAPY CANDIDATE

- Energy Level: Mid to Moderate
- Personality: Blue is an incredibly personable and engaging boy who thrives on connection. He is confident without being pushy and shows a natural desire to be close to his people. He actively seeks engagement and works to maintain attention and connection. Blue is extremely tolerant of handling, loves being interacted with, and adapts his energy to match his person—able to play when it's time for activity and settle when things are calm. He will do best in a home where he is included in daily life, as he truly shines when he has companionship and meaningful interaction.
- Health Notes: N/A

Green

POTENTIAL ESA / THERAPY CANDIDATE

- Energy Level: Mid to Moderate
 - Personality: Green is a confident, affectionate, and people-focused boy with a wonderfully balanced temperament. He is very social, eager to engage, and actively works for attention and connection. Green is highly tolerant of handling and naturally drawn to human interaction, making him an excellent candidate for families seeking a close companion. He mirrors many of Blue's traits, showing a thoughtful and engaged personality. Green will thrive in a home where he is involved in daily routines and given opportunities for both play and connection.
 - Health Notes: N/A

Orange

POTENTIAL ESA / THERAPY CANDIDATE

- Energy Level: Mid to Moderate
 - Personality: Orange is a well-rounded and versatile boy with a confident and balanced temperament. He enjoys interaction and play but is also content to entertain himself when not actively engaged. Orange can be a bit assertive during play and may show a more mouthy, playful style, but overall he maintains a thoughtful and adaptable nature. He shows some early signs of therapy or service potential and is best described as a “jack-of-all-trades” puppy—social, capable, and well-suited for a wide range of home environments.
 - Health Notes: N/A

Blue Dot

POTENTIAL ESA / THERAPY CANDIDATE

- Energy Level: Mid to Moderate
- Personality: Blue Dot is a very personable and engaging boy who naturally seeks connection with his people. He is confident, extremely tolerant of handling, and shows a strong desire for companionship. While he can display moments of independence, he ultimately values human interaction and thrives when he is included and engaged. Blue Dot adjusts well to his environment and rises or settles to match the energy around him. He will do best in a home where he receives regular interaction and companionship, as he truly blossoms when bonded with his people.
