Date of Birth: 3/20/2026

Mango Litter Temperament Overview:

The Mango x Gunner litter is exactly what we anticipated from this pairing—sweet, playful, affectionate, and incredibly engaging. These puppies are very intelligent and naturally people-oriented, consistently showing a strong desire to connect and interact with those around them. Overall, this litter is exceptionally personable and social, actively working to gain and maintain attention while still remaining balanced and adaptable. They carry confident, affectionate temperaments with mid to moderate energy levels across the board, making them easy to integrate into a variety of home environments. These puppies would happily stay as close to their people as possible and truly thrive on connection and interaction. We would recommend monitoring the entire litter for therapy or service potential, as they embody many of the traits we strive to produce within our program.

Mango x Gunner — Parent Overview

Mango is a bubbly, confident, and playful momma with a spunky, goofy personality that's impossible not to love. She brings energy and enthusiasm to everything she does, yet despite all that liveliness, her favorite thing is still to roll over and ask for belly rubs. Mango strikes a fun balance between playful chaos and affectionate sweetness.

Breed: F2 Goldendoodle

Weight: 46lbs

Gunner is a sweet, engaging, and deeply affectionate boy. While he will happily run and play when the moment calls for it, he will almost always choose cuddles and attention over anything else. He is an absolute sweetheart through and through, bringing a calm, loving presence to this pairing.

Breed: Mini Poodle

Weight: 17lbs

Together, Mango and Gunner are expected to produce puppies that reflect the best of both—sweet, playful, affectionate, engaging, and full of personality. We anticipate mid to moderate energy levels, strong people-oriented motivation, and puppies that prefer connection above all else. This litter should be a wonderful fit for a wide variety of home environments.
