Norvina Litter Temperament Overview:

The Norvina x Mylo litter is a beautifully balanced group that blends confidence, playfulness, and adaptability. These puppies are very intelligent, engaging, and full of personality, showing a natural curiosity and enthusiasm for interaction. They carry a nice mix of independence and people-orientation—happy to entertain themselves when needed, while still forming strong, meaningful connections with their people.

With mid to mid–moderate energy levels, this litter offers a versatile range of companions who can enjoy both play and downtime. Socially, they are appropriate and engaging, with a fun, expressive side that comes out in play and interaction. Overall, these puppies are well-rounded, affectionate, and adaptable, making them wonderful fits for a wide variety of home environments.

Norvina Blue

- Energy Level: Mid to moderate
- Personality: Blue is a very people-focused and engaging boy who may take a brief moment to settle into new environments, but warms up quickly. He is extremely affectionate and thrives on interaction, showing a strong desire to connect with his people. He is very tolerant of handling and enjoys being engaged. He carries a well-balanced temperament overall, though he can show a slightly expressive or “sassy” side when playing or seeking attention, including some vocalization. Once comfortable, he is steady, affectionate, and easy to be around, with a nice ability to both engage and settle.
- Health Notes: N/A

Norvina Green

- Energy Level: Mid to moderate
- Personality: Green is a confident, social, and well-balanced boy who is easy to engage with and enjoyable to be around. He is affectionate and people-oriented, while still maintaining a healthy level of independence. He handles interaction and touch very well and shows a calm, steady presence. He is playful and curious without being overwhelming, and carries a consistent, easygoing temperament that will transition well into many types of homes.
- Health Notes: N/A

Norvina Orange

POTENTIAL THERAPY / ESA CANDIDATE

- Energy Level: Mid to Moderate
- Personality: Orange is a very happy, social, and engaging boy who truly enjoys interaction with his people. He is confident and affectionate, with a naturally playful and responsive personality. He loves handling and connection and tends to show a bit more enthusiasm during interaction. He has a nice balance overall, but leans slightly more toward engagement, which paired with his strong people focus gives him early potential for emotional support or therapy-style work. He will do best in a home that enjoys interacting with and including their puppy in daily activities.
- Health Notes: N/A

Norvina Blue Dot

- Energy Level: Moderate
- Personality: Blue Dot is a confident and expressive boy with a more assertive personality. He enjoys interaction and play, though he can be more tactile and active in how he engages, showing some mouthiness and a more wiggly handling style. He is very capable of learning and responds well to guidance, but will benefit from structure and consistency as he matures. Blue Dot is best suited for a home that is comfortable guiding a confident, interactive puppy and helping him develop into a well-mannered companion.
- Health Notes: N/A

Norvina x Mylo — Parent Overview

Norvina is a sweet, engaging, affectionate, and beautifully balanced momma. She embodies the true “jack-of-all-trades” temperament—equally happy lounging on the couch, heading out on an adventure, meeting new people, or entertaining herself when needed. Whatever the day holds, Norvina is right there for it, bringing adaptability, ease, and a steady, people-oriented presence.

Breed: F1B Schnoodle

Weight: 28lbs

Mylo is a fun little fireball of a doodle. Playful, outgoing, goofy, and bubbly, he approaches every interaction with an impressive level of enthusiasm for his size. Mylo is full of personality and energy, and while many things can be said about him, “boring” is certainly not one of them.

Breed: F1B Goldendoodle

Weight: 9.5lbs

Together, Norvina and Mylo are expected to produce puppies that blend these traits beautifully—outgoing, engaging, playful, and full of life. Norvina’s balance should help soften Mylo’s intensity just enough, resulting in fun-loving puppies with great motivation across many areas. We anticipate mid to moderate energy levels and adaptable temperaments that will make them wonderful fits for a wide variety of home environments.
