Norvina Litter Temperament Overview:

The Norvina x Mylo litter is a beautifully balanced group that blends confidence, playfulness, and adaptability. These puppies are very intelligent, engaging, and full of personality, showing a natural curiosity and enthusiasm for interaction. They carry a nice mix of independence and people-orientation—happy to entertain themselves when needed, while still forming strong, meaningful connections with their people.

With mid to mid–moderate energy levels, this litter offers a versatile range of companions who can enjoy both play and downtime. Socially, they are appropriate and engaging, with a fun, expressive side that comes out in play and interaction. Overall, these puppies are well-rounded, affectionate, and adaptable, making them wonderful fits for a wide variety of home environments.

Norvina Pink

POTENTIAL THERAPY / ESA CANDIDATE

- Energy Level: Mid to moderate
- Personality: Pink is a confident and engaging girl who shows a strong interest in people and interaction. She may take a brief moment to settle in new environments, but quickly becomes affectionate and connected. She is extremely tolerant of handling and enjoys being engaged, showing a very people-focused nature. She has a balanced temperament overall, though she can show a slightly expressive or “sassy” side during play or when seeking attention, including some vocalization. Once comfortable, she is steady, affectionate, and easy to be around, with a nice ability to both engage and settle.
- Health Notes: Puppy’s teeth are slightly delayed in development. This has been evaluated and cleared by our vet.

Norvina Red

POTENTIAL THERAPY / ESA CANDIDATE

- Energy Level: Mid to moderate
- Personality: Red is a very personable and engaging girl who thrives on interaction with her people. She is confident, social, and affectionate, with a naturally happy and playful demeanor. She loves handling and connection and shows enthusiasm during interaction without being overwhelming. She has a nice balance overall but leans slightly more toward engagement and responsiveness. Combined with her strong people focus, this gives her excellent early potential as an emotional support or therapy companion. She will do best in a home that enjoys engaging with her regularly and including her in daily activities.
- Health Notes: Puppy's teeth are slightly delayed in development. This has been evaluated and cleared by our vet.

Norvina White

POTENTIAL THERAPY / ESA CANDIDATE

- Energy Level:
- Personality: White is a confident, affectionate, and highly people-oriented girl who enjoys interaction and connection. She is very tolerant of handling and thrives on engagement, showing a naturally social and happy personality. She is playful and expressive, with a slightly more enthusiastic response during handling and interaction, but remains well-balanced overall. Her strong people focus and engagement give her great early potential for emotional support or therapy-style work. She will do best in a home that enjoys an interactive, connected companion.
- Health Notes: Puppy's teeth are slightly delayed in development. This has been evaluated and cleared by our vet.

Meet the Parents

Norvina x Mylo — Parent Overview

Norvina is a sweet, engaging, affectionate, and beautifully balanced momma. She embodies the true “jack-of-all-trades” temperament—equally happy lounging on the couch, heading out on an adventure, meeting new people, or entertaining herself when needed. Whatever the day holds, Norvina is right there for it, bringing adaptability, ease, and a steady, people-oriented presence.

Breed: F1B Schnoodle

Weight: 28lbs

Mylo is a fun little fireball of a doodle. Playful, outgoing, goofy, and bubbly, he approaches every interaction with an impressive level of enthusiasm for his size. Mylo is full of personality and energy, and while many things can be said about him, “boring” is certainly not one of them.

Breed: F1B Goldendoodle

Weight: 9.5lbs

Together, Norvina and Mylo are expected to produce puppies that blend these traits beautifully—outgoing, engaging, playful, and full of life. Norvina’s balance should help soften Mylo’s intensity just enough, resulting in fun-loving puppies with great motivation across many areas. We anticipate mid to moderate energy levels and adaptable temperaments that will make them wonderful fits for a wide variety of home environments.
