

Maria Girl Temperament Assessment

Date of Birth: 4/14/2026

Maria Litter Temperament Overview:

The Maria x Jeremiah litter is an exceptionally well-rounded, confident, and highly engaging group that beautifully reflects the strengths of both parents. These puppies are very personable, affectionate, and naturally motivated by both people and interaction, making them easy to connect with and enjoyable to be around. They show strong early confidence without being pushy, and approach new situations, handling, and engagement with curiosity and ease.

Across the litter, there is a very consistent foundation of intelligence, responsiveness, and social awareness, with each puppy offering slight variations in energy and engagement style to suit a wide range of homes. Energy levels range from mid to moderate, with most puppies becoming more animated during play and interaction, while still being able to settle appropriately.

Overall, this is a very adaptable and trainable litter that should transition smoothly into family environments. With their strong human focus, affectionate nature, and balanced temperaments, many within this group show nice early potential for therapy, emotional support, or companion roles, while also being wonderful, well-adjusted family dogs.

Maria Pink

- Energy Level: Mid to Moderate
- Personality: Maria Pink is a very happy, silly, and engaging puppy with a naturally playful and affectionate personality. She is confident without being pushy and approaches interaction with a fun, lighthearted energy that makes her very enjoyable to be around. She is personable and enjoys people, while still maintaining a balanced level of independence. During handling, she is tolerant and engaged but can become wiggly once she is ready to move on, reflecting her playful and active nature. Her energy level sits in the mid to moderate range, rising with interaction and play. She will do best in a home that enjoys an interactive, slightly more active puppy that brings personality, engagement, and fun into everyday life.
- Physical Evaluation: N/A

MEET THE PARENTS!

Meet The Parents

Maria x Jeremiah — Parent Overview

Maria is a sweet, gentle, and even-keeled retriever with a soft and thoughtful approach to life. She seeks out affection in a quiet, respectful way, rarely being vocal or pushy, and brings a calming, steady presence to those around her. Maria's gentle nature makes her incredibly easy to live with and deeply endearing.

Breed: English Retriever

Weight: 62lbs

Jeremiah is her energetic and playful counterpart—full of drive and always ready for action. He is highly motivated by both people and food, making him exceptionally trainable and intelligent. Jeremiah brings enthusiasm and intensity to everything he does, with a personality that is constantly seeking engagement and activity.

Breed: Moyen Poodle

Weight: 27lbs

Together, Maria and Jeremiah are expected to meet beautifully in the middle, producing puppies that are sweet, playful, engaging, affectionate, and intelligent. We anticipate mid to moderate energy levels, strong motivation for both people and food, and well-balanced temperaments that make them a great fit for a wide variety of home environments.