Sansa x Voodoo — Parent Overview

Sansa is a sweet, engaging, and well-balanced retriever with a very affectionate nature. She loves attention and closeness, often seeking it out in the most endearing ways, and can be a bit pitiful when asking for more love. While she is capable of entertaining herself when needed, her true preference is being near her people and soaking up affection.

Breed: English Retriever

Weight: 62lbs

Voodoo is very similar in nature—sweet, affectionate, fun, and highly engaging. He has a zest for life and enjoys everything from playing and running to cuddling up close. His easygoing, happy personality and love for interaction make him a truly wonderful companion all around.

Breed: Standard Poodle

Weight: 49lbs

Together, Sansa and Voodoo are expected to produce puppies that are sweet, affectionate, engaging, and well-balanced. We anticipate mid to moderate energy levels, with strong motivation toward people and interaction over anything else. This litter should be fun-loving and adaptable, making them an excellent fit for a wide variety of home environments.
