

Myra Boys Temperament Assessment

Myra Boys Play Video

Date of Birth: 5/4/2026

Myra Litter Temperament Overview:

Myra is an outgoing, affectionate, and playful girl who approaches everything in life with enthusiasm and full engagement. Whether she's playing, cuddling, or seeking attention, she gives it her all. Maxwell complements her perfectly with his equally affectionate, energetic, and people-driven personality—thriving on interaction in any form. Together, they have produced a litter that is incredibly people-focused, engaging, and eager to connect.

This litter is curious, confident, sweet, and highly interactive, with a natural desire to be involved in whatever their people are doing. They are self-assured without being overwhelming, and their bubbly, affectionate personalities make them extremely endearing. Energy levels are mid level to mid to moderate, typically rising with interaction and settling once their engagement needs are met. These puppies will do best in homes that are very interactive, engaging, and involved with them.

Myra Blue

POTENTIAL THERAPY / ESA CANDIDATE

- Energy Level: Mid Level (excites with interaction)

- Personality:

Scottie is a curious, thoughtful, and engaging boy who may take a brief moment to settle into new environments, but adjusts nicely once he understands his surroundings. He carries a naturally sweet and affectionate personality that becomes very apparent as he opens up. Once comfortable, he is social, happy, and very engaging with his people, showing a strong desire to connect without being overwhelming.

He is very tolerant with handling and has a steady, easygoing nature that makes him a comfortable and enjoyable puppy to be around. His balance between curiosity and connection gives him a really nice, approachable personality.

He is incredibly people-oriented, intuitive, and naturally drawn to building strong, meaningful bonds with his people. He thrives on connection and interaction in a softer, more thoughtful way, making him a lovely candidate for therapy or emotional support work.

- Health Notes: No current health concerns.

Myra Green

POTENTIAL THERAPY / ESA CANDIDATE

- Energy Level: Mid Level (excites with interaction)

- Personality:

Green is a sweet, steady, and self-assured boy who brings a calm confidence into every interaction. He may take a moment to settle in new environments, but once he does, he shows a very affectionate, engaging, and people-focused personality. He has a gentle, tolerant nature and handles very well, making him an easy and enjoyable puppy to work with.

He strikes a really nice balance between independence and connection, leaning toward his people while still maintaining a calm, grounded demeanor. His personality is smooth, thoughtful, and consistent.

He is incredibly people-oriented, intuitive, and naturally motivated to build strong bonds with his people. He connects easily and genuinely, making him a wonderful candidate for therapy or emotional support roles as he continues to mature.

- Health Notes: No current health concerns.

MEET THE PARENTS!

Meet The Parents

Myra x Maxwell — Parent Overview

Myra is an outgoing, engaging, playful, and affectionate girl who does just about everything at full throttle. Whether she's playing, running, seeking attention, or cuddling with all 13 pounds of herself, Myra puts her whole heart into it. Her enthusiasm for life and deep love for people make her an incredibly fun and interactive companion.

Breed: F1 Schnoodle

Weight: 13lbs

Maxwell shares much of that same spirit. He is affectionate, energetic, and very outgoing, with a singular focus in life: interaction. Maxwell doesn't particularly care what activity is taking place as long as a person is involved. He will happily do whatever it takes to gain and maintain your attention, bringing enthusiasm and connection to every interaction.

Breed: Poodle

Weight: 12lbs

Together, Myra and Maxwell are expected to produce puppies that closely mirror their parents—outgoing, affectionate, playful, and highly engaging. Above all else, we anticipate puppies that are completely enamored with their people and thrive on connection. Energy levels will likely fall in the mid to moderate range, occasionally pushing toward moderate when excitement is high. This litter should be an excellent fit for homes that enjoy a very interactive and involved relationship with their dog.

#FAMILY
Forever

