Date of Birth: 5/16/2026

Analise Litter Temperament Overview:

This litter is very well-balanced, respectful, and naturally engaging, with a strong emphasis on connection, playfulness, and emotional awareness. They present as sweet, affectionate, and personable puppies who are very in tune with their people while still maintaining a healthy level of independence.

Across the board, they are confident but not overwhelming, adjusting well to new environments with just a brief moment when needed. They are gentle and tolerant with handling, and show a natural ability to settle, creating a very easy, adaptable temperament overall.

Energy levels sit at a consistent mid to mid-moderate range, with excitement rising during interaction and play, then settling quickly back into a balanced state. These puppies are highly motivated by connection and engagement, and thrive when included and interacted with regularly.

Several puppies in this litter show excellent early potential for service, therapy, and ESA work, as they are incredibly people-oriented, intuitive, and naturally driven to form strong, meaningful bonds with their families.

Overall, this is a very versatile, family-friendly litter that will do beautifully in homes that are interactive, engaging, and looking for a true companion.

Analise x Dempsey — Parent Overview

Analise is a respectful, playful, and happy poodle with a wonderfully engaging personality. She is highly present in her interactions, expressive in her communication, and carries strong motivation for engagement with the people around her. Analise approaches life with enthusiasm and curiosity while maintaining a balanced and thoughtful demeanor.

Breed: Standard Poodle

Weight: 42lbs

Dempsey shares many of those same qualities. He is outgoing, sweet, and exceptionally balanced. Playful without being overwhelming, affectionate without being needy, and engaged without being dependent, Dempsey brings a remarkable level of control and emotional steadiness to everything he does. His ability to balance all aspects of his temperament is one of his greatest strengths.

Breed: F1 Schnoodle

Weight: 35lbs

Together, Analise and Dempsey are expected to produce puppies that closely reflect their parents—balanced, respectful, engaging, and playful. We anticipate mid to moderate energy levels, perhaps leaning slightly toward mid-level, along with adaptable temperaments that are easy to live with. This litter should be a wonderful fit for a wide variety of home environments, offering a healthy blend of engagement, affection, and stability.
