Date of Birth: 6/1/2026

Angelus Litter Temperament Overview:

The Angelus litter is very personable, social, and happy, with a natural balance of affection, playfulness, and engagement. These puppies are confident and curious, showing a strong interest in their environment while remaining very people-oriented and connection-driven.

Across the board, they are engaging, interactive, and expressive, with a fun, playful side that comes out most during interaction, while still maintaining a manageable and well-balanced temperament. They demonstrate good focus and responsiveness for their age, making them enjoyable and rewarding to work with.

Energy levels range from mid to moderate, often increasing with play and interaction, then settling appropriately. This creates a great balance of fun, engagement, and livability in a home setting.

Several puppies in this litter show early potential for service alert and therapy work, supported by their engagement, responsiveness, and strong desire to connect, though continued structure and guidance will help refine that potential as they mature.

Overall, this is a well-rounded, social, and interactive litter that will thrive in homes that are engaging and involved, resulting in fun, affectionate, and deeply connected companions.

Angelus Red

- Energy Level: Mid to Moderate Level

- Personality:

Angelus Red is a happy, confident, and playful puppy with a naturally goofy, engaging personality that makes her incredibly fun to interact with. She brings a bright, expressive energy to every interaction and thrives in environments where she can be included, engaged, and connected.

She approaches new situations with confidence and curiosity, without being pushy, and settles in comfortably. She is very personable and socially driven, consistently showing a desire to connect and be part of what's going on around her.

She can be slightly wiggly with handling due to excitement, but remains cooperative and responsive, showing a playful yet manageable temperament. Her engagement style is upbeat and interactive, with a strong focus on people and connection.

Her energy level is mid level overall, with the ability to rise into mid to moderate during play and interaction, where her fun, bubbly personality really shines. She balances her excitement well and remains an easy puppy to work with.

She shows early potential for therapy work, supported by her people-oriented nature, engagement, and responsiveness, though her higher excitement level means she will benefit from continued structure and guidance to fully develop that potential.

Overall, she is a confident, social, and affectionate puppy who will thrive in an interactive home, offering a fun, engaging, and deeply rewarding companionship experience.

Angelus x Mylo — Parent Overview

Angelus is a sweet, affectionate, gentle, and beautifully even-keeled girl. While she certainly has a playful and silly side that comes out when she gets excited, her favorite thing in the world is soaking up love and affection from the people around her. Angelus brings a calm, comforting presence and a naturally loving disposition to every interaction.

Breed: F1B Schnoodle

Weight: 11lbs

Mylo is a fun little fireball of a doodle. Playful, outgoing, goofy, and bubbly, he approaches every situation with an impressive amount of enthusiasm for a dog of his size. There are many ways to describe Mylo, but "boring" would never be one of them. His joyful outlook and larger-than-life personality make him a constant source of entertainment and engagement.

Breed: Mini Poodle

Weight: 9.5lbs

Together, Angelus and Mylo are expected to produce puppies that blend the best of both parents—sweet, affectionate, and loving like their mother, while also being fun, outgoing, and delightfully goofy like their father. We anticipate mid to moderate energy levels and adaptable personalities that can shift easily between cuddle time and playtime, making these puppies wonderful companions for a wide variety of home environments.
