Eden Litter Temperament Overview:

The Eden x Jonah litter is a very confident, intelligent, and well-balanced group that continues to reflect the consistency seen in this repeat pairing. These puppies show little to no stress in new situations and approach new people, sights, and sounds with curiosity and confidence—even in scenarios that would typically be considered startling. They demonstrate excellent memory, focus, and problem-solving abilities for their age, along with strong motivation for both interaction and play.

Socially, this litter is very appropriate with one another, as well as with people and other animals, showing no red flags or possessive behaviors. They are comfortable with handling and often actively seek out interaction, while also being content to settle, observe, or entertain themselves independently when needed.

Energy levels sit at a mid to a mid to moderate range across the litter, with puppies naturally becoming more animated during engagement and play while still maintaining an overall balanced and adaptable demeanor. Overall, this is an easygoing, tolerant, affectionate, and socially confident litter that will transition beautifully into a wide variety of homes.

Eden Pink

POTENTIAL SERVICE + THERAPY CANDIDATE

- Energy Level: Mid to Moderate
- Personality: Eden Pink is a very sweet, gentle, and easygoing puppy with a naturally affectionate and engaging personality. She is confident without being assertive and handles new environments, people, and interactions with a calm, steady presence. She truly enjoys being close to people and is very drawn to engagement, showing a natural desire to be included in whatever her person is doing.

She is incredibly people-oriented and intuitive, naturally striving to form strong bonds and stay closely connected with her family. She responds very well to handling and affection, remaining gentle and tolerant while still being playful and happy. While she prefers interaction, she is also capable of settling and observing or entertaining herself when needed, giving her a very nice balance overall. Based on her confidence, engagement, tolerance, and strong human focus, she shows very good early potential for therapy, service, or emotional support roles. She will thrive in a home that includes her in daily life and values a close, affectionate companion.
